Blue Wintertide

Crisp, clear Blue Wintertide

Some people need to celebrate in absolute style. The winter wonderland is inspired by the blue shades in ice crystals and snow landscapes. This year a range of blue tones with subdued natural colours to give it a more “back home” feeling to appeal to your stylish customers.

Colourful Winter

Go all out with Colourful Winter

The recipe for the perfect, colourful holiday season is fun, joy, a twinkle in the eye and a warm Christmas mood. Mix and Match! For example handmade things with a touch of kitsch adds to the emotional yet humorous look. All for your trendy customers.

Scandinavian Atmosphere

Be cosy with Scandinavian Atmosphere

This theme is all about warmth, cosiness and a feeling of new cottage romance. The familiar skier idyll is back on the palette with grey and natural tones. Here we find Scandinavian interpretations of Alps chic and Nordic winter landscapes. The knitted look and Norwegian patterns are also big this year. And this style will be sort after by your customers.

Traditional Winter

Red, bordeaux and green – that is Traditional Winter!

Warmth, familiarity and old country flair. The theme is all about what we expect Christmas to be, good food, baking and family get-together. Elegant, subtle and natural materials like bleached wood gives the table a touch of nostalgia and it shows that the season has truly arrived.
